THREE JAILED FOR MARKET STAB ATTACK

THREE men have been jailed for a stabbing in Barking.

They were convicted after forensic evidence and CCTV footage proved all three men's involvement in the attack.

The 30-year-old male victim was attacked in the town market on River Road at 2.45pm on Sunday, May 1. Police said his injuries were so severe that the case was originally treated as an attempted murder.

Officers discovered the attack had happened after an altercation at the market earlier that day.

The victim has since made a good recovery.

On Wednesday, D'angelo Miller, 20, of Farquhar Road, SE19, was jailed for six years for grievous bodily harm with intent.

Lutfi Zabitler, 20, of Hothfield Place, SE16, and Jay Smith, 22, of Bostall Lane, SE2, were jailed for two years each for affray and possession of points and a bladed article.

DS Paul Slaymaker, from Barking and Dagenham CID, said:

"This was a nasty attack that occurred in the middle of the day in front of many witnesses.

"The injuries suffered were initially so severe this incident was first treated as attempted murder.

"Thankfully, the victim has made a good recovery and all three men now have time to reflect on their actions in prison."

Win a thrilling family falconry experience

IF you are scratching your head over what to get someone special for Christmas, why not treat them to an unforgettable experience with Coda Falconry?

The award-winning bird of prey centre at Lee Valley Park Farms, Waltham Abbey, not only operates daily displays for farm visitors, but also gives people the chance to get closer to the birds.

To give you the opportunity to see what it offers, Coda is giving away Woodland Walk experiences with its barn owls to two families.

The experience, which is open to all ages and costs £45 per person, is an incredible starter session for children and adults as you can see barn owls flying free before calling them onto your gloved hand.

Coda Falconry also offers two-hour Owl Encounters, for anyone aged 13-plus, for £65 per person. Fly a huge variety of owls to your gloved hand including tawny, African spotted and Eurasian eagle owl, and handle a sundra scops owl.

Its two-hour interactive falconry experience, which also costs £65 per person, aged 13-plus, allows you to explore the sport, fly a variety of birds including buzzards, hawks and owls, and receive a certificate.

Treat yourself or someone special to a half-day falconry experience; a full day Medieval Falconry to take photos.

For more information call Coda

Falconry on 07710 969930, visit codafalconry.co.uk, email info@codafalconry.co.uk or visit www.lvffarms.co.uk.

To win one of two Woodland Walk experiences, each of which is valid for two adults and two children, answer this question.

Q: At which castle can you enjoy one of Coda's Medieval Experience days?

A: Leeds Castle
B: Bodiam Castle
C: Hedingham Castle

To enter the competition telephone your answer - A, B or C - to 0901 307 1678 with your name, address, telephone number and email. Alternatively text YAFLY (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333. Calls cost 50p per call plus your phone company's access charge. Calls from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates.

If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, text EXIT at the end of your message.

Lines close on Thursday, November 10. Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged.

UNISON campaign boost to home care

Low paid council employees to get travel pay and time during home visits across east London

UNISON has launched a campaign to get fair pay and conditions for workers providing home care across east London.

The union said it wanted to see staff given more time to spend with elderly clients. It has also called for employees to get travel costs reimbursed and to be paid while travelling between jobs.

Dave Prentis, general secretary of UNISON, praised home-care workers' compassion and the benefits of the service.

He said: "I know from personal experience the valuable work homecare staff do, day-in, day-out.

"It allows many people to remain at home when they would otherwise have to be looked after in expensive care homes.

"UNISON is leading the way in highlighting the importance of their work and in fighting to win the pay and conditions they deserve."

Barking and Dagenham Council has become one of the first to sign an agreement pledging to provide 'quality home-care to residents'.

The agreement guarantees workers enough time for visits, travel time pay and petrol costs.

Cllr Maureen Worby, cabinet member for social care and health integration, said the deal demonstrated the council's commitment to the lowest paid staff.

She said: "This follows on our policy of ensuring our lowest paid staff get paid above the London Living wage, and we look to have this replicated in our home-care providers.

"Our most vulnerable people deserve quality care and we will do everything we can with the money we have available to make that a reality."

NEWS IN BRIEF

● A MAN is in a critical condition in hospital after he was stabbed in Barking on Friday, October 28.

The man in his 50s suffered wounds to his torso around 9.30pm, in Pelham Avenue. The attacker left on Sterry Road. Information to CID on 101.

● A MAN suffered life-threatening injuries after a collision in Ilford on Thursday.

The incident involved a black Renault Clio Hainault Road, at the junction with Painters Road at 10.50pm on October 27.

● NINE PEOPLE were rescued from a blaze in Oakland Park Avenue, Ilford on Sunday at 3.37am.

The fire started in a workshop under construction close to shops. Eight adults and a child were rescued from the adjacent first floor flats via a nine metre ladder.

The building under construction and two vehicles were gutted by the blaze. Shops and adjacent flats sustained some external damage.

The fire was put out at 5.34am. No injuries were reported.

College celebrates fourth birthday

STAFF and students at the Technical Skills Academy in Barking celebrated its fourth anniversary earlier this month.

"It is amazing to think that four years have gone by since the Academy was officially opened by Ed Balls.

"Since then many hundreds of students have started their career paths of choice, achieved and progressed to University, to apprenticeships and employment with relevant work ready skills and experience

Ed Balls, the former Labour MP, opened the college in 2012.

No tricks, just plenty of treats

CHILDREN and parents braved The Liberty's Halloween Grotto over half-term.

Visitors made masks and joined a trick-or-treat treasure hunt, which involved following clues in shop windows around the centre to win Halloween treats and a potential £50 gift card.

Jonathan Poole, centre manager, said: "We really enjoyed welcoming families to The Liberty for frightful Halloween fun."

Volunteers at Havering Museum held a spooktacular day of fun with Halloween-themed activities. Children searched for the hidden familiars of Elizabeth Clarke, who was accused of witchcraft and hanged in 1645, as part of the museum's Witch Hunt exhibition.

Ian Browne, volunteer manager, said: "It was nice to see the galleries bustling with noise and laughter."

"All too often there is this perception that museums are stuffy environments where children should be quite. That is just not the case anymore."

It's time to send us those scary stories

IT'S that time of year again.

The Yellow Advertiser is launching its annual Christmas ghost story competition.

If you are an aspiring writer living in Essex or east London – and you have a scary story to tell – then get typing.

Book tokens are up for grabs in the adult and children's categories. The top three stories will be published in our first edition of January 2017.

As ghouls have moved into the 21st century, along with the rest of us, judges can only accept stories via email.

The competition is open to schools, so we would like to encourage English departments to take up the challenge to grab the coveted first place for their own literary protégés.

The junior section is open to youngsters aged 16 and under.

Entries should be no more than 300 words and emailed to letters@yellowad.co.uk.

The closing date is Sunday, December 11.

Hospice scoops top gongs for gardens

SAINT Francis Hospice received two prestigious awards for its gardens – for the second consecutive year – at the London Gardens Society Awards.

The charity beat other hospices to gold in the patio, hanging basket and window boxes categories on Thursday, October 13, beating last year's silver and bronze medals in the same categories.

It also won a silver award in the large gardens category.

receive the awards.

She said: "We are absolutely delighted. We knew that we were nominated for an award but we didn't expect to win a gold and silver medal."

She said the awards will boost the morale of people who tend the gardens.

"It is a great boost for all our volunteers who are so dedicated and now our team has grown we will continue to make the gardens an even more relaxing and peaceful space for patients, staff and visitors," she added.

William Morris Gallery opens youth exhibition

FIVE YOUNG artists have made and curated an exhibition for Walthamstow.

The artists, aged between 16 and 22, made 'Think! The Poster Collective', a collection designed to provoke debate surrounding free speech and mass media, at the William Morris Gallery.

The exhibition was inspired by 'A World To Win: Posters of Protest and Revolution', another event at the William Morris Gallery until January 15 2017. The new runs until January.

Winter can be perfect time to sell you home

ADVERTISEMENT

DESPITE spring and summer remaining the busiest times for the property market, contrary to popular belief there are many good reasons to sell a home in the winter months.

Kevin Shaw, national sales director at property specialist Leaders, says: "Winter may typically be cold and dark, but the property market at this time of the year is remarkably bright."

"A good number of property sales are arranged and completed during the period between November and February and the market is certainly becoming less seasonal with every passing year. With relatively few distractions for buyers and less competition, winter is now an excellent time to put your home on the market."

Kevin has identified three reasons that make winter the perfect time to sell:

1) Serious buyers with no distractions

Winter tends to attract only determined buyers. Whereas those who are uncertain about buying may choose to look around properties in the warmer months, only committed movers do so in winter. This means you can be confident viewers are serious about your home and have the ability to make an offer.

There are also few distractions at this time of the year to disrupt moving plans.

2) Festive boom in online searches

Major property portals such as Rightmove and Zoopla are incredibly busy over the Christmas and new year period. Last year, Rightmove recorded a surge in visitors from Boxing Day onwards, reaching a peak of almost three million on the first working day in January.

People who get their property on the market in November and December are in pole position when it comes to taking advantage of this spike in buyer activity.

3) Less competition

Winter typically sees fewer properties on the market than spring and summer, but with serious buyers still searching it can actually be easier to agree a sale as there is less competition from rival sellers. Kevin adds: "Winter may be a great time to sell, but you still need to prepare your property in the right way to appeal to buyers. Aim to create a warm and cosy welcome and allow as much light in as possible. First impressions also count for plenty so don't let the weather put you off a spot of gardening or DIY to the front of your home. Doing so will put you in a great position to achieve a quick sale at a great price."

BILIC: DEFEAT A BITTER PILL

Football

Everton 2-0 West Ham United
Brian Jeeves reporting from Goodison Park

SECOND half goals from Romelu Lukaku and Ross Barkley saw West Ham slip to a disappointing defeat against Everton after they had comfortably contained the hosts in an entertaining encounter.

Following three victories on the bounce in all competitions, Hammers fans made the trip to Merseyside with a spring in their step. Having staged a terrific fightback from two goals down to win 3-2 in the corresponding fixture last season, it was an optimistic West Ham who were aware that a win could carry them into the top half of the table for the first time this season.

Slaven Bilic, made one change from the side that had upset Chelsea in the EFL Cup during the week, with goalkeeper Adrian returning in place of Darren Randolph.

Everton went into the game unbeaten at home in the Premier League. However, progress towards the Champions League qualification places has been halted of late following a run of four matches without a victory.

It was the visitors who made the better start and almost grabbed an early advantage. Dimitri Payet picked out Michail Antonio, but the Hammers wideman was unable to guide his close-range effort goalwards. Soon after, Pedro Obiang passed up an even better opportunity, firing over from 12 yards after Payet had again crafted the opening.

Everton offered very little in the way of an attacking threat. However, they were a whisker away when skipper Gareth Barry sent a curling strike just over after Hammers defender Winston Reid slipped. Then Adrian sprung to West Ham's rescue, smothering at the feet of Lukaku after Yannick Bolasie's strike had deflected into his path.

But it was the visitors who continued to play the brighter football. Manuel Lanzini wasn't far away with an angled drive after wriggling in from the left flank.

Meanwhile, at the other end, Adrian produced a terrific one-handed save to deny Barkley as Everton looked for a foothold.

The home side was slowly beginning to find their feet. Kevin Mirallas forced Adrian into another classy save, turning over after the Belgian's cross-come-shot looped viciously under the bar.

But within five minutes of the restart, Everton grabbed the lead.

Adrian spilt Seamus Coleman's venomous effort, and Lukaku nodded into an empty net after Bolasie squared the loose ball. Buoyed by the goal, Everton swiftly looked to extend their advantage. Barkley was too high with a speculative attempt.

Meanwhile, Everton keeper Joel Robles did well to block from Antonio as the Hammers desperately searched for an equaliser.

West Ham began to attack with greater intent. Robles expertly turned aside Mark Noble's dipping effort from distance, while Italian frontman Simone Zaza was thrown on by Bilic in an attempt to rescue something from the match. But before they could make any further headway, Everton put the contest out of reach. Lukaku picked out Barkley, and the England midfielder, in turn, beat Adrian with a crisp half-volley from eight yards.

In the final stages, Adrian thwarted Lukaku with a flying save, then blocked from Tom Cleverley with his feet as the home side turned the screw.

Speaking after the match, Bilic said: "Of course you are disappointed after every defeat, but with this one, it's more disappointing.

"I'm not saying that they didn't deserve it, they were more lethal, more matured, more cruel when they were offered something.

"They took it straight away, which we didn't do when we created or they made mistakes.

"We knew they had a good side. But there's a bitter taste because we should have taken something out of this game, definitely."

Everton manager Ronald Koeman, said: "The second half was good, really different from the first half.

"Of course, the fast first goal after half-time brought that confidence, that boost to the team.

"Then you saw that Everton can be strong and very good offensively. I thought defensively we were perfect."

West Ham are next in Premier League action on Saturday, November 5 when Stoke City visit the London Stadium (3pm).

Everton: Joel Robles, Ashley Williams, Ross Barkley (Aaron Lennon 88'), Romelu Lukaku, Kevin Mirallas (Tom Cleverley 72'), Yannick Bolasie (Phil Jagielka 83'), Idrissa Gana Gueye, Gareth Barry (Capt), Bryan Oviedo, Seamus Coleman, Ramiro Funes Mori. Subs not used: Mateusz Hewelt (GK), Gerard Deulofeu, Aaron Lennon, Dominic Calvert-Lewin, Mason Holgate.

O's sink into drop zone after another disaster

Football

Leyton Orient 0
Crewe Alexandra 2
Sky Bet League Two
By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

LEYTON Orient find themselves in the bottom two after suffering another setback on Saturday, as mid-table Crewe became the seventh side to win in east London this season.

The O's had no answer to first-half strikes from George Cooper and Harry Davis.

Boss Alberto Cavasin named an unchanged starting 11 from the win at Hartlepool seven days beforehand. Jay Simpson started on the bench, together with loan signing, midfielder Michael Collins.

The Railwaymen included former Orient striker Chris Dagnall.

The O's made the more positive start, with Ben Garrett making a smart catch from Callum Kennedy's sixth minute free-kick, before Ollie Palmer shaved the Crewe bar.

But the Alex hit back with Dagnall forcing Alex Cisak into a fine low save, before Cooper beat marker Nicky Hunt to a James Jones through ball, but overran his intended cutback for Dagnall.

The O's didn't learn from those close shaves and an unmarked Cooper netted from 15 yards with a stunning 33rd minute strike after the O's failed to clear their lines.

Orient were lucky not to be two down two minutes later, when Tom Parkes made a spectacular goal line clearance to deny Alex Kiwomya after Cooper had been allowed to cross.

Davis got the second goal Crewe had been threatening, three minutes from the break, when he met Kiwomya's cross and drilled home from six yards.

Cavasin reshuffled the squad at the break and replaced ineffective Jordan Bowerly with Michael Collins, moving Gavin Massey upfront to partner an isolated Palmer.

Palmer almost reduced the deficit six minutes after the restart, but Garrett made a smart, low save, before Tom Parkes could only head Kennedy's ensuing corner wide from inside the six-yard box.

Orient struggled to create any openings and made a last desperate throw of the dice on 72 minutes when Simpson replaced Nigel Atangana and Ulrich Nnomo stepped in for Gavin Massey.

Half-chances fell for skipper Robbie Weir, who was unable to keep his 77th minute 30-yarder down, before seconds later, Palmer wanted too much time and allowed Ollie Turton to make a last-ditch interception.

That was as good as it got for a punchless Orient attack, who were forced to play the last eight minutes with ten men after Nnomo, was stretched off.

With seven minutes' stoppage time, Cisak at least kept the score-line respectable with a fine save from Bingham's drive, after Dagnall had dispossessed Parkes.

Cavasin admitted: "We did well for the first 20 minutes, but without creating many opportunities. Then, we conceded a goal in a way which was too easy for them to score. We must work on ways so that we don't concede goals like we did."

With only one home goal scored since August, Cavasin added: "We need to find a balance between our offensive and defensive play."

Crewe boss Steve Davis said: "We've shown great character today. We're surprised how easy it was for us."

Former Republic of Ireland U-21 international, Collins, added: "We're all very disappointed with the result, but, credit to Crewe, at 2-0 up, they shut up shop and did a good 'away job' on us."

Orient will be in FA Cup 1st Round action on Sunday, (kick-off 2pm) when they face Sheffield United at Bramhall Lane.

Leyton Orient: Alex Cisak, Jens Janse, Nicky Hunt, Tom Parkes, Callum Kennedy, Gavin Massey (Ulrich Nnomo 72 - injured 89), Nigel Atangana (Jay Simpson 72), Robbie Weir (capt), Sandro Semedo, Ollie Palmer, Jordan Bowerly (Michael Collins 46). Unused subs: Sam Sargeant, Alan Dunne, Victor Adeboyejo, Zan Benedicic.

THE BIG MATCH

HAMMERS v STOKE CITY

Premier League
London Stadium
Saturday, November 5 (3pm)

Non-league round-up

Local derby game ends all square

By Brian Jeeves

CONCORD Rangers and Chelmsford City shared the National League South spoils after an entertaining 2-2 draw at the Aspect Arena.

Sam Collins gave the Beach Boys an early lead, but the Clarets hit back to lead thanks to Robbie Willmott and a Shaun Jeffers penalty. However, Collins struck again to deny the visitors three points. Concord dropped to second from bottom in the table, but look capable of pulling away from the drop zone. Meanwhile, Chelmsford extended their unbeaten sequence to 11 matches and stay second.

East Thurrock United picked up a useful point on the road. Luke Roberts gave hosts Poole Town the lead, but evergreen striker Sam Higgins levelled for the Rocks three minutes from time.

In the National League, Dagenham & Redbridge earned a notable draw at league leaders Forest Green Rovers. Rhys Murphy gave the home side the lead just after half-time, but Oliver Hawkins's goal 15 minutes from time gave the Daggers a point.

Braintree Town's difficult campaign continues. Harry White's late penalty earned visitors Solihull Moors a 1-0 win at Cressing Road.

In Ryman League Division One North, Avey edged out Norwich United by the odd goal in three at Mill Field. Gaz Dauti and Jordan Peart grabbing the early goals for the Millers, Adam Hipperson pulling one back for the Norfolk club.

Haringey Borough won a thrilling encounter with Tilbury. Ramii Sherriff, Ralston Gabriel and Coby Rowe all found the net for the home side. Simon Peddie and a Kurt Smith penalty replied for the Dockers Elsewhere, Joe Gating (2) and David Hinton were on target as Dereham Town dispatched struggling Great Wakering Rovers 3-0.

In the FA Trophy, Brightlingsea Regent thrashed Metropolitan Police 6-2. Aaron Condon hit a hat-trick, while Harry McDonald, Phil Kelly and Josh Gould were also on the mark. Ricky Sappleton's first-half brace ensured Billericay Town made progress, seeing off Maldon & Tiptree 2-0 at New Lodge, while Khale da Costa's 10th-minute goal ensured Harlow Town a 1-0 win at Uxbridge.

A George Sykes double gave Canvey Island a 2-0 lead at Enfield Town, but the home side hit back to stun the Gulls, winning 3-2, thanks to a pair from Bobby Devyne and a Billy Crook strike.

Pat Ahern's own goal saw Witham Town's Wembley dreams end at Biggleswade Town, and it was the same outcome for Heybridge Swifts who went down to Toomey's second half penalty against Kings Langley.

Waltham Abbey's FA Trophy run also came to its conclusion. The Abbey were emphatically beaten 5-0 at Capershots by Merstham. Bowers & Pitsea were also heavily beaten, crashing out 4-0 at AFC Sudbury.

Basildon United were the Essex Senior League's headlines, seeing off local rivals Hullbridge Sports 4-0 at Lower Road. Ilford were comfortable 2-0 winners over West Essex, while Sawbridgeworth Town stunned Barking by recording a 2-1 success at Mayesbrook Park.

Southend Manor triumphed by a single goal over Burnham Ramblers at Leslie Field and Clapton also won on their travels, edging out Takeley by the same margin.

Stansted beat Redbridge 5-2. Elsewhere, Tower Hamlets and Waltham Forest ended in a 1-1 draw. Selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw Harold Hill win their Premier Division clash at Bishop's Stortford Swifts by three goals to one.

Many of the region's Olympian League sides were involved in the Essex Premier Cup, with Basildon Town thrashing AFC Barnston 5-0 and Shenfield AFC putting out Runwell Sports 5-2.

Great Baddow recorded the biggest cup victory of the day, hammering Lawford Lads 6-0.

LEYTON SIXTH FORM COLLEGE RATED 'GOOD' BY OFSTED 2016

Ofsted said:

The 'quality of teaching, learning and assessment' are heavily praised. 'Teachers set high expectations of their learners with regard to the quality of their work and standards of behaviour. Learners produce work of a high standard.'

Inspectors recognised the high numbers of students going on to university, many to the most prestigious. 'A high proportion of learners on level 3 programmes go on to university. Most learners on level 1 and level 2 programmes progress to the next level of learning.'

'Support is very effective and is tailored to meet individual needs. Learners develop good personal, social and employability skills.'

'Staff have a strong focus on promoting excellence. Students at LSC, the report acknowledges, are introduced to the concept of 'being professional learners' and as a result student behaviour at the college is described as 'excellent'. Students 'participate in a wide range of activities which develop their social responsibility'.

Enrichment and sports provision is also noted to be of a high standard. 'Most learners participate in the many opportunities available to develop their personal and social skills, including volunteering, Duke of Edinburgh awards and the accreditation of their achievements through a university awards scheme.'

'A very high proportion of A Level and Vocational learners achieve their qualifications and the majority exceed their target grades.'
